PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE:

Greetings Cornerstone!

What an awesome time we had in our first ever Family Worship service last Sunday. If you were not there you really missed out, but fear not, we are definitely going to be putting more Family Worship services on the calendar. I don't think I have ever heard people so active and involved in a worship service like I heard and saw last Sunday. Special thanks to Tami Allingham our Children's Ministry Director for her incredible work! Tami did an outstanding job with her bible lesson and the jury is still out on my Sermon In A Bag :) although I did have several people tell me they enjoyed it. Maybe what they enjoyed was watching me squirm as I tried to come up with a sermon about a life vest. It had been a long time since we did sermon in a bag but I am sure you will be seeing it again more frequently, I think it will be a nice baptism by fire to have Pastor Mike do the next one, what do you say? :) PS. I did finally finish my blanket.

This Sunday I am going to be taking us back to a message I shared last fall when we did our sermon series in Max Lucado's book "Fearless". These are still frightening times. Jobs are still being lost, homes are still foreclosing, and fear still seems to be the steady diet of most people, Christians included. This week I will speak to the question Jesus asked of his disciples while they were rocking and rolling in a huge storm, "Why are you afraid?" At first it seems like a silly question until you explore a little deeper. I am anxious to share things with you and that I believe will help us all as we encounter the storms of life.

See You Sunday!

Enter the park and drive to the south parking area. Providing there are spaces available we will be around one of the fire rings. If the park is full we will look for a place in the north parking area. Here is what you need to bring. Bring whatever you want to cook over the fire or bring your premade dinner. Bring your own drinks and some side dish or chips to share. The church will provide the condiments, plates and napkins and smores for dessert. Cost to enter the beach now is $15. We encourage you to carpool to save gas and parking expense.
